Have you watched the sun descending In a cloud filled stormy sky—

How it leaves a golden halo
As it bids the day goodby?

Here a touch of glory lingers

Like a blessing on the land

A touch of golden glory
From a strong and unseen hand

There are those whose lives remind us

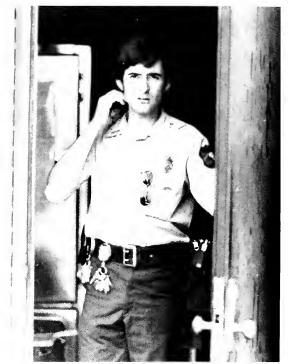

Of the sunset's warming glow

They leave a touch of glory Lingering after when they go.

DEDICATION

The theme of this year's annual is "Leave a Touch of Glory". The dedication is in keeping with the theme. The one we honor seeks to guide others to His master. He is a loving father, devoted husband, a faculty leader, and a friend to the students. He seeks to show all that the love of God gives one a "Touch of Glory". We dedicate 1980 Crusader to Dr. William Clawson

Presidential Message-1980

A certain plain, modest, old fashioned schoolmaster, named

John Trebonius, always took off his hat in the presence of his scholars.

"For, who knows," said he, "there may be among my pupils a great poet, or a great preacher, or a great philosopher." And as a matter of fact, he had in his class a chubby little boy whose name was Martin

Luther.

Martin Luther's tutors were many - yet not any of them are known to fame, and John Trebonius is remembered, not for anything he said, but for something he did and his explanation of it. To the simple removal of that man's hat, I suggest, we may owe the reformation.

I take off my hat in the presence of the student body of William Carey College in 1980.

CAREY DINNER THEATRE

Carey Dinner Theatre opened its fifth season with "Dazzle" and dazzle is just what they did. The cast and company gave a performance that will be remembered as a standard of excellence for following companies.

Dazzle

Lila Noonkester, Ellen McGarr, Lisa Poole, Peggy Cardin, Damon Goff, David Bowman, Andy Stewart, David Wright.

RAINBOW JONES

CDT's second summer production "Rainbow Jones" was well received by its audiences. Due to the illness of a company member Mr. Obra Quave, director of CDT, stepped into the part. Music direction for both shows was by Keith Thompson and the choreography by Madalene Daniell.

Tennessee Williams Retrospective: presented October 23-25 was a tribute to the Mississippi playwright. Four One acts were presented.

The Strangest Kind of Romance

Auto Da Fe

The Four One acts showed Williams in his varying styles. The show was more than a tribute, it made for good Theatre.

Portrait of a Madonna

The Unsatisfactory Supper

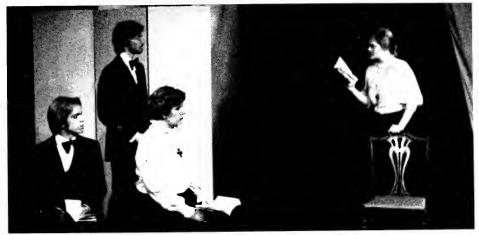

"CROWN MATRIMONIAL"

Readers Theatre presented the production "Crown Matrilonial" along with "The Duel", which was Micheal Hornesby's senior directing one act.

"THE DUEL"

CAREY WELCOMES REAGAN

Ronald Reagan a possible Republican presidential nominee received a true Carey welcome when he visited William Carey College in October. He came in support of other Mississippi political candidates. Mr. Reagan spoke in Wilkes Dining Hall after a fund raising campaign dinner. Following the dinner he gave personal greetings to the students as he had when he first arrived. Welcome back to Mississippi anytime, Mr. Reagan.

RUNNING ON SADIE HAWKINS DAY

Dr. Swor, We Love You!!!

And, with pomp and love and banners this man who walks with His Lord was warmly greeted at the season of "Thanksgiving" on Carey's Campus. His warm, embracing, hospitable manner again charmed all who attended special services in Chapel in Thomas Auditorium and in a nite lite program in the cafeteria. Dr. Swor is Carey's teacher for all seasons but he made "Thanksgiving 1979" a memorable one.

Come Back Real Soon!!!

The Imperials in Concert

The Imperials performed before a large audience at Thomas Hall on the Thanksgiving weekend. The entertainment was enjoyed by all age groups. The "old Imperial" music was presented as a prelude to Christmas with emphasis on the spirit of Christmas.

Intramural football for 1979 was as exciting as ever. The teams worked and played very hard. As you viewed the Carey football field on beautiful fall afternoons, it was possible to see fantastic passes, tremendous blocks, fine tackles, and terrific touchdowns. This year's champs, Chi Beta Phi, were proud to survive the stiff competition.

WILLIAM CAREY COLLEGE

Wishes TO THANK THE CONTRIBUTORS FOR THEIR SUPPORT TO THE
1980 CRUSADER
PRODUCTION

We will find our morning, and find ourselves. We have so much to work with, so much to strive for. So many goals that are very close at hand. We shall go forth and continue the work yet unfinished by our fathers. We shall aspire to the highest levels that man has the capacity to achieve. It is our journey; it will be our successes, our failures, our page in history—not that of our father.

This is our day

Yesterday we were tomorrow's children. Today we are the future being born. Tightly grasping the torches that have been handed us—hope, morality, freedom-

We go forth a little wide-eyed and afraid to our first day of adulthood.

H.A. Scott

Through this edition of the Crusader I have made a sincere and ernest attempt to "Leave a Touch of Glory" with you for 1980.

I would like to express my thanks to a few special people:

First of all to my Lord for this opportunity to grow once more and knowning I can always rely on him; my staff for being so patient and tolerant with me and also for their ideas and help; my photographers for their efforts and talents displayed throughout this book; my advisor, Mrs. McClure for being understanding, helpful and again tolerant; and my friends for standing by me when I became unbearable. This doesn't express my true love for all of you, but I do thank and love you very much.

Pam Sellers
